

The Pendleton Community Watch Group will meet next on Wednesday February 17th at 7pm at the Wendleville Social Hall on Old Tonawanda Creek Road.

On October 21st, Denise Rivers from the Countryside Community Neighborhood Watch program in Newfane along with two other members of her group gave a very enthusiastic, informative talk on their group in their town. Her focus was get involved, know your neighbors and don't be timid. There were many excellent points regarding organization, tips on home security, communication, etc. given as well.

On November 18th, Todd Ostrowski from the Niagara County Sheriff's department (and a Pendleton resident) lent us a video about suspicious activity and what to be alert for and how to communicate your suspicions and concerns. Very eye-opening.

Upcoming topics will include information from groups such as the US Secret Service, ICE (US Immigration and Customs Enforcement and possibly topics regarding first aid, home security, personal defense and others. The NCSO has offered many of their resources as well. If you have other topics that you are interested in, please let us know.

If you live in the town and are concerned, please attend and bring a neighbor. If you have any questions regarding the Pendleton community watch, you may call Kevin Smigiel 625-8660 or email at (SanfordsTrucking@aol.com) or call Rick Wagner at 625-8089, email at (pookman_99@yahoo.com).
